

ATTENTION PARENTS:

Do you have a story to share?

Are you a parent or family member of a child living in Erie County who is receiving services from any human service agency or working with child welfare, BHRS, juvenile probation, early intervention, special education or out-patient?

Then we invite you to participate in the

“ERIE COUNTY PARENTS AS PRESENTERS WORKSHOP II”

Friday, May 9TH in Erie
at the First United Methodist Church
707 Sassafras Street
9:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Did you know ...when college students, professionals and others hear directly from families, they become better at what they do.

The workshop is designed for parents or family members to learn effective ways to share their story with college students, professionals and others to help encourage family connections.

You can make a difference and have a voice in Erie County!

Participation is limited. Transportation and child care will be available. If interested please contact the Erie Family Center at (814) 874-6990, the Union City Family Support Center at (814) 438-7550, or your service provider.

Sponsored by:
Building Bridges, a family driven group of parents and professionals funded by the Erie County Department of Human Services in conjunction with the Erie Family Center, the Union City Family Support Center & the Mercyhurst Civic Institute
